Wednesday, April 13: Happy Hour Kickball Season V Kicks Off!

Your summer doesn't officially start until you play some kickball, and kickball starts on Wednesday April 13, and it's going to be a helluva good time!

Weather Cancellation

In the case of a snow or ice out, the website will be updated by 4:30 pm, the day of the game as will the Twitter feed, the Facebook Page and the Weather line (202-415-2843). If the snow or ice out occurs after 4:30 pm, the division heads will contact captains, or the appointed contact persons, and it will be the captains' responsibility to inform their respective teams.

Referees

Each must provide a referee, either for the 8:00 pm game if you are playing at 9:00 pm or for the 9:00 pm game if you are playing at 8:00 pm. Failure to provide a referee will count as a forfeit.

Forfeit Policy

Only really occur if you have less than 4 people, this will be very difficult to accomplish, so we don't think this should be an issue.

Team Lightning

Oh Yeah x 3

By Ronbo

On that fateful night Team Lightning was 10 strong, but with only 3 females. Seemingly immune to fatigue, Cage, Alysia, and Carolyn were in top form for every single game of the double header. Having defeated us 12 games to 1 in our first matchup of the season, Dodge This thought they had this one all wrapped up. We quickly stunned them by winning the first two games of the night, including the only game of the season that I personally (the clown in the Giants shirt) got to the end of without being eliminated. With every game we won the yellow team got more flustered and ornery. Some of their team members maintained their composure but the team as a whole was putting out a lot of negative energy. "Jayne the Beast!" Not knowing her official title, we got to calling Yellow's particularly dominant female the Vacuum for her ability to catch all balls within her vicinity. Team Lightning developed and implemented a technical assault to deal with the Vacuum. We eliminated the rest of the team first and then Jason, Matt and any other remaining bolts concentrated attacks. Our females continued their long history of quickly shaking off face shots when Alysia got tagged in the face and refused to let the game miss a beat. By the time the clock struck 9 the official ref's count was 7 games to 7. After Chris referenced his own rules on his iPhone, we prepared for sudden death OT. Our power couple of Jason and Alysia joined Matt on the court. Wading through palpable tension Team Lightning's champions readied themselves within spitting distance of a heart breaking defeat, but with a tangible feeling of destiny keeping any doubts at bay. The Yellow team would be represented by two tall athletic looking gentleman and Jayne the Beast. The first exchange of balls was inconsequential, but the second was anything but. Playing with the bravado and aggression that had propelled us to that moment our team threw their balls first with a coordinated strike at one of the guys, for only a fool would have targeted the Vacuum. Jason's ball accomplished its goal of distracting the unknowing victim of our assault and Matt's ball hit it's mark and the center of the court was like a lightning rod where all of the bolts met to briefly celebrate like it was 1999.

Because of their positive attitude and dominant ability to have fun, Lightning's favorite team, other than Team Lightning, has come to be the Battlefield Smurfs. It was heartwarming to know that the Smurfs would always have the joyful memory of defeating the undefeated Purple Dodge Ball Eaters, because we knew that the Championship Trophy would not be theirs. Purple and Yellow were both so deflated by their respective defeats that they agreed not to play the third place match.

After the balls were placed in the center of the court and we were instructed to make it hot, the first game was clearly blue. As the match progressed, we enjoyed the competition from the Smurfs, who were vastly superior to the Smurfs we faced a few short weeks ago. In one particular game I was the only member of Team Lightning left standing and decided to use the opportunity to show boat a little. As soon as I lifted my shirt to reveal the large red lightning bolt drawn on my belly I got hit in the foot by the Blue team's loud, bearded player. The moment waxed poetic and both teams celebrated the obvious humor of the moment. Going tit for tat, it ultimately turned out to be another very close match. With the same number of games won and enough time left for only one more game everybody in the building knew eternal glory was now on the line. Unleashing the fury, the referee's call sounded like beautiful music- "For the last time this season... Dodge Ball!!!!". In the end the attitude,

, fortitude, aptitude, and dominitude of Team Lightning was more than any other squad could handle. Ultimate champions of the Happy Hour Dodge Ball universe, we were given the trophy that had really always been ours. Everyone on Team Lightning played well that night, but of the females, Alysia did the most dodging, ducking, dipping, diving, and dodging. Jason Paige was a cussen superstar as well. Finally, Matt continued to be the most dangerous man alive with a well cushioned ball, throwing the winning ball in the first match against Dodge This and picking apart the Battlefield Smurfs in the championship game like an expert marksman practicing his craft.

By Rob L

It was a cold, rainy, Thursday night. In the distance, slowly making their way up the hill with the setting sun as the backdrop was one team. That team was Battlefield Smurfs. Upon entrance to the bleak metallic structure that Happy Hour Kickball calls their facility, one team stands on the opposing side, that team...is the Purple Team. With no losses and 7 wins this season, they have a perfect record. As Battlefield Smurf set foot on the blue court, they realize this court is blue. With this realization comes a memory, a memory filled with loss, and tragedy. For this court was blood spattered with Smurfs of a time now past, and all Battlefield Smurf wanted to do was to reclaim what was rightfully theirs. The Purple team won, then Battlefield Smurf caught up, then another win for Purple, and another for Battlefield Smurf, it was a volly match of games until finally Battlefield Smurf won one game, than two, than three, to finally pull ahead victoriously and beat the undefeated Purple team. The next game, was for all the balls. This game would crown one victor, and one victor only, and to them would go the spoils. It was a long match, with advantages on either side, neither team showed any disadvantage in the face of adversity that they faced. Finally, emerging victoriously in first place was Team Lightening, of the Red Team.

Some may say losing the championship is a loss, but no this was not a loss. It was an incredible victory, from a team that had no wins last season only to come back this season and beat an undefeated team. We will gladly take 2nd place, for us, this is 1st.

Well sometimes when you win, you lose, and sometimes when you lose you win, and sometimes you tie. In this case we just lost. It was too bad but you know these things happen.

We're better at wing eating, and vomiting than everyone, know that.

Also good at flip cup, truck driving and delivering the mail.

Props to my team, my ladies who played every minute of every flipping game. Hats off to you Melissa, Annie and Jayne.

Jayne, who is better than everyone reading this.

Props to the fellas as well who were great all season long.

Too many to name, too glorious in their own ways that brought something special.

Congrats to Red and Blue, though I really wish we could get beyond these political differences. Though if we could have congress just play dodgeball for all decisions that would be kind of awesome.

I bet John Boehner would start weeping immediately and John Kerry would get hit first because he's so tall.

Until next season, or next whiffle ball season, I wish you a good day....I said GOOD DAY!

Peace!

Point-Counter Point-Point with Bacchanaleon, God of Kickball and Deon, God of Dodgeball

Happy Hour Dodgeball and Kickball have their respective gods, Leon for kickball, Deon for dodgeball. They're brothers, and their names rhyme, that's about all they have in common. Leon works 7 months out of the year, Deon 3. Leon is older and seemingly more responsible. Deon is younger, doesn't give a crap about anyone but him and is known to piss his older brother off. Leon enjoys boozing and loves the players who love and pray to him, Deon enjoys boozing and hates all of you. Over the next 8 issues these two will debate a certain topic and perhaps impart some wisdom, but will certainly entertain.

This week the question was, "It's the end of the Season, who won this round of debates?"

Ah as another winter comes to a close I get to bid goodbye to my younger brother. He like the crabs I contracted from Bea Arthur will not be missed. As he returns to Providence, Rhode Island to run his casinos and hide the bodies of the ladies he over exerts himself on.

But Leon is a good god, he loves all creatures put on the earth for you, my loyal subjects and minions, except for mashed potatoes, which are the devils work, or Deon's love juice, it really depends on who you talk to or who you believe. Believe me, Leon, the God that does not lie and does not threaten to stab you in a Whole Foods if you eye ball my honey mustard in a funny way...not like my brother Deon.

Now that he's left we can get down to brass tacks and party like we do in the summer. The ladies show more skin, the guys show their horrible hammer feet and I rejoice by having Aphrodite attempt to please me in only the most intimate way...,with Nacho Cheese. Oh and Deon will spend the summer quilting because he likes the cold, he likes you covered up, he enjoys opening you like a present on Christmas morning, or your birthday or another day where you get gifts.

So carry on my wayward sons and daughters it's getting warmer and sexier, to all you Deon worshippers, well I guess you can just go to hell.

See you on the fields, in your hearts, in your hangovers and in your worst of decisions. It's Leon the God that wants to scramble eggs for you before your inevitable walk of shame from my cloud.

Good evening and I know I was engaged in a debate this season but why would I notice, I mean my brother is an illiterate and can't spell.

See you, you sexy people.

Debate?! I've been debating last few weeks?

Some experts contend that the US should address the security fears of Iran, Russia, North Korea, and China in order to prevent these countries from becoming threats to others. Do you agree with this approach?

That's a debate question! All I know is that Delores my be big-breasted assistant brings me a topic I speak into my dictaphone for 30 minutes dropping knowledge bombs left and right on that magnetic strip and Delores my BBA transcribes it into a letter which I send off. Before we go any further I'm fully of aware of what Delores my BBA's name rhymes with it's one of my favorite parts on the female form. Although I think most men regard it as Mt. Rushmore it's sounds like a great place to visit but damn if they can find the time to get there. Not when it's soo much easier to pop over to local water slide and shoot out of it in 30 seconds and be on your way. What were we talking about? Regardless Mt. Rushmore is fantastic and I implore everyone of all sexes to visit it some time. I had another assistant Mulva but she didn't have quite the assets that Delores brings to the workplace. Mulva was very good a dictation and all but I just really find it much easier to put a finger on Delores... and get overflowing results out of her.

Did I win the debates? Well that's really an unfair question. We are talking about apples and oranges here. If I were to watch a debate between A man and a bird clearly only one of them would be making sense to you and he would easily win the debate. The other one is a fucking bird that can't form a coherent thought and speak English. Well that is what debating Deon is like we aren't even in the same league to acknowledge a debate was happening. If I were to use my example of the bird vs. man, Deon is the man and i'm the God above looking down on the moron talking to a bird. We are that far apart intellectually.

Did I win the debates? HA, only Deon would have thought he was actually debating with a god. God's don't debate we PROCLAIM. Most of my proclamations come at the end of coitus. So I tend to say absurd things like: If God had a Vagina he would beg me to fuck it!; or, Hot Water Burn Baby!! (This was more popular in the 90's); I'm the lizard king! (70s); Get ready for some nectar of the GOD!!

Now that is how you debate people!

The History of HHKB Invented Beer Games

The Beer Relay

In the past, HHKB has played and invented many drinking games, it's true, more than any other league in the entire Kickball World. Why you would be wondering or considering the outside kickball world confuses me however.

First off there was the Beer Relay, this is a Beer OH

Lympics Staple and combines all the skills one would need if they were to have a beer gaming interview. It includes Flip Cup, You Got Served, Pong and Chugging a Pitcher and to top it off, the Beer Bong of Doom. All skills a well rounded drinker needs.

Then there was Drink Flip Run. Drink Flip Run requires four tables, and a cup for each person running around said tables at each table. You and three (or 7 if you're playing team Drink, Flip, Run) start off at different table, once the bell rings you drink your cup, flip it and then head over to the next table and do this 4 times until a winner finishes first. The first version had four total cups around the inside of each table. This was then changed to 8 as the outside of the tables were included. Finally, it was taken up another level with the inclusion of a relay race where teammates drank a cup, and tagged a waiting partner at each table, this included 4 cups per person.

Drink-Flip-Run

Then there was Flong. Flong was invented due to a lack of beer, and small cups. It combines the best of Flip Cup and Pong. You get to flip a cup and to throw a pong ball into a pyramid as well, including rebuttals, picking and pointing. Eventually a full cup faceoff comes about and everyone smiles.

Flong

The Board

During the Summer of 2009, the Board of Champions came about. The Board was incorporated into our Weekly Survivor match, that pitted as many people as we could around the tables. The Board requires skill and a steady hand, the steady hand is usually the tricky part.

In the Fall of 2009 HHKB started playing Danger Zone, a fun game if you have about 2 hours of free time. But like most good games it had to be tweaked, so now instead of just tossing pong balls across a table you had to take a drink from your cup every third throw (or every throw) to speed the game up. This worked famously and the game has been a hit ever since!

Danger Flip!

Our latest game was brought to us from the brain of Seamus, Survivor Quarters is just what it sounds like. It combines quarters (or You Got Served) with Survivor Flip Cup. Basically 4 players are standing around one shot glass and have to knock their three quarters into the glass before anyone else. The person who comes in last is eliminated. That person's quarters are then redistributed to the remaining 3 players, while the losing player puts down a pint of beer. The game then continues thusly until there is one grand Survivor who has not been served! This is a great, glorious and addictive game!

Survivor Quarters

So there you have it, the newest HHKB invented drinking game. Are you interested in getting down? I know that you are!
